

San Antonio Polymer Clay Guild Meeting

Minutes

August 26, 2006

Reports:

1. Membership— We now have 35 members, four new ones signed up at this meeting.
2. Bottles of Hope— We collected 41 BOH in July.
3. Bead jar—Our bead jar is full!

Polymer Clay Express Order

Linda will be placing an order with PCE in September. If you'd like to order something, you need to print and fill out an order form from their website.

2007 Polymer Clay Cruise

Linda Kirk has brochures for the cruise for those who are interested.

Lone Star Retreat 2007:

The Houston Polymer Clay Guild is hosting their Lone Star Retreat February 23-25, 2007. The cost is $175 and includes classes and meals. Teachers will be Karen "Klew" Lewis and Lynn Anne Schwarzenburg. Check the Houston PCG website for more info:

<http://www.houstonpolyclay.org/2007retreatdetails.htm>.

Makin's Clay Products:

Patty will no longer be carrying Makin's Clay Products through her website since she is now a full-time employee for Makin's.

SABOS Information:

1. SABOS has 161 members
2. 1st meeting is September 13, 6:30p at the Botanical Gardens. This is a Mixer type meeting, lots of fun and everyone is invited.
3. If we have information we'd like to share with SABOS, please contact their webmaster, Barbara McKinley.
4. Their website address: www.sabostx.com

Bring and Brag:

Patty has a wonderful article in Belle Armoire that she shared.

Helen showed the book that she made in Karen Veni's class.

Elizabeth shared a tip about fixing hairline cracks with super glue gel.

Program:

Becca taught us how to make Natasha/Inside-out beads.